

East View – GeoPDF Use Cases

9th US Gov't Geospatial PDF Working Group Agenda

June 25, 2015

Rodney Buhrsmith

rodney.buhrsmith@eastview.com

UNCOMMON INFORMATION
EXTRAORDINARY PLACES
©2013

EASTVIEW.COM | GEOSPATIAL.COM | MAPLINK.COM | EVPRESS.COM

Who is East View?

Established in 1989 to source and add value to uncommon information from extraordinary places

175 Employees

HQ in Minneapolis; Offices in Beijing, Hong Kong, Kyiv, Moscow, Nairobi

Russian, Chinese, Arabic, Geospatial, Commercial Maps
Databases, print periodicals, microfilm, books

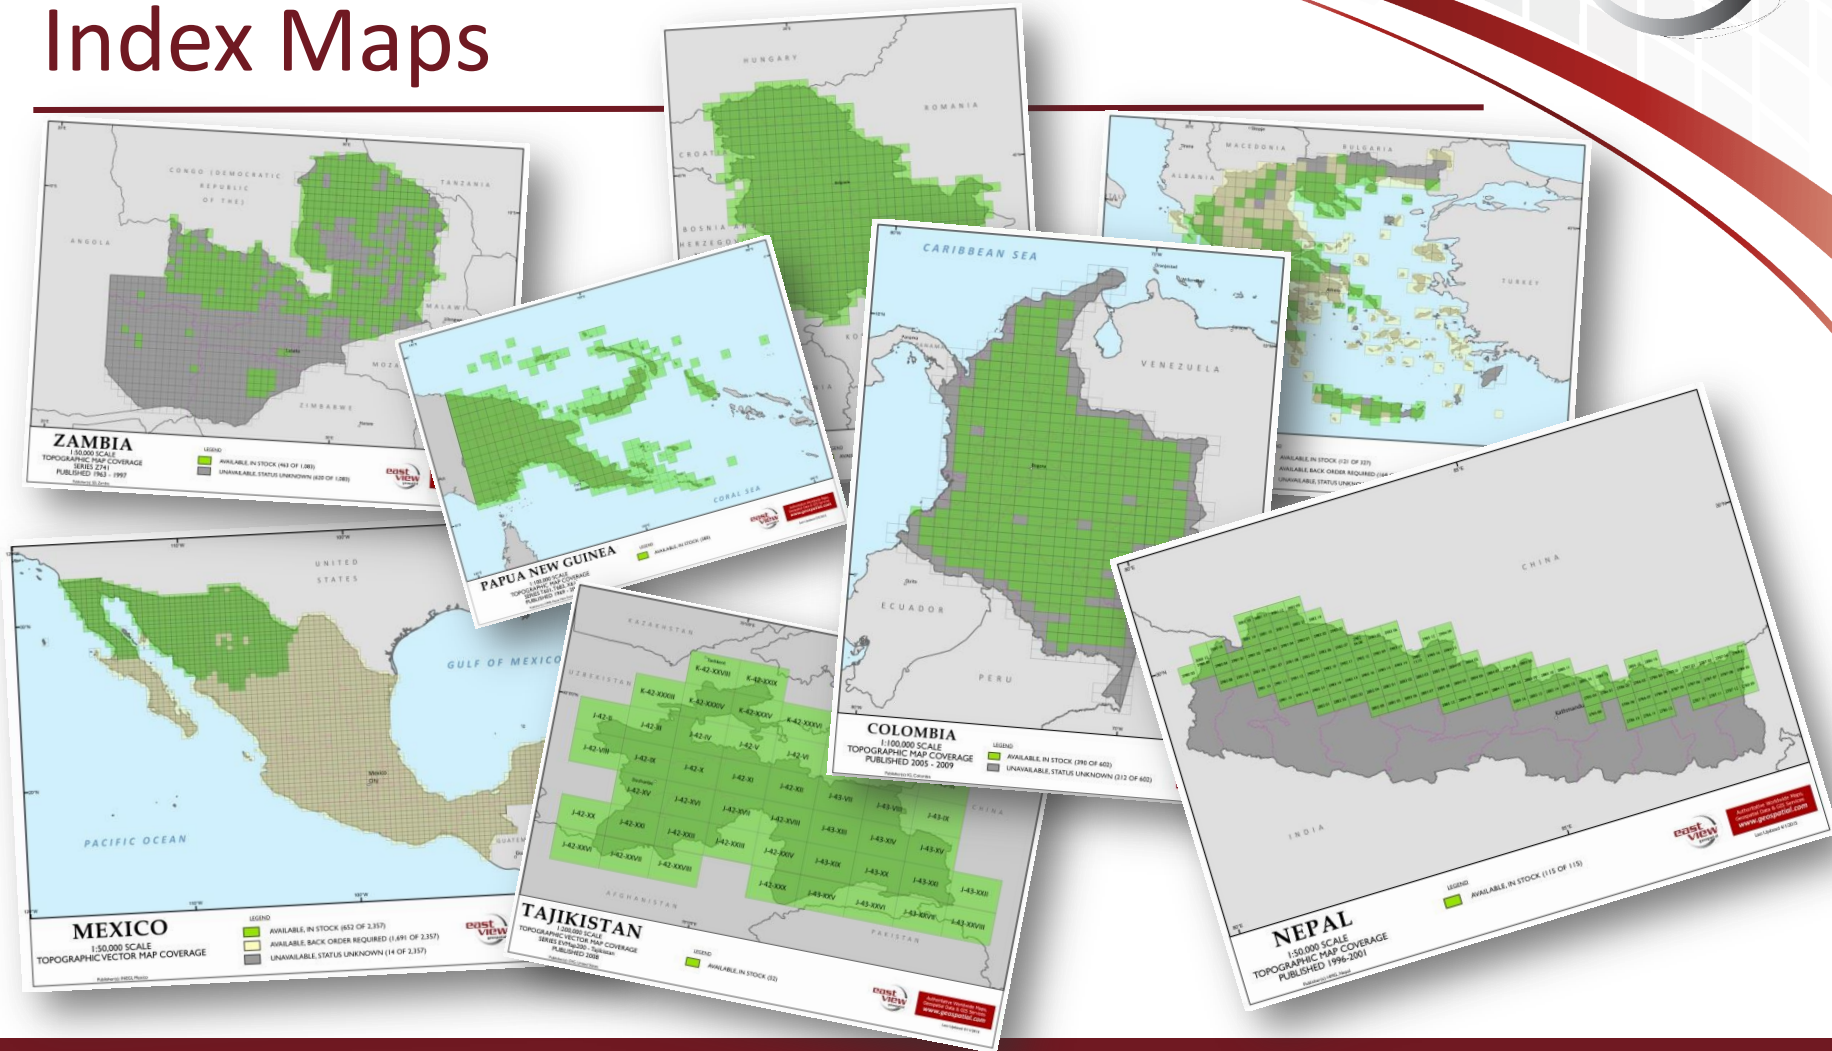

GeoPDF Experience

- Experience back to TLM deliveries to NGA 2009
- Geo-enabling content for traditional GIS'ers as well as social science and other academic users
 - EV serves a vast academic community in Slavic, Middle Eastern and East Asian Studies. The GeoPDF standard brings content to life that would lay unexploited
- Improvements/enhancements desired for GeoPDF: better compression to reduce image size under 10MB

Specific GeoPDF Use Cases

- Index Maps
- EVMap50 Series - Myanmar/Syria
- Terrain Analysis Series
- Aero/Nautical Charts

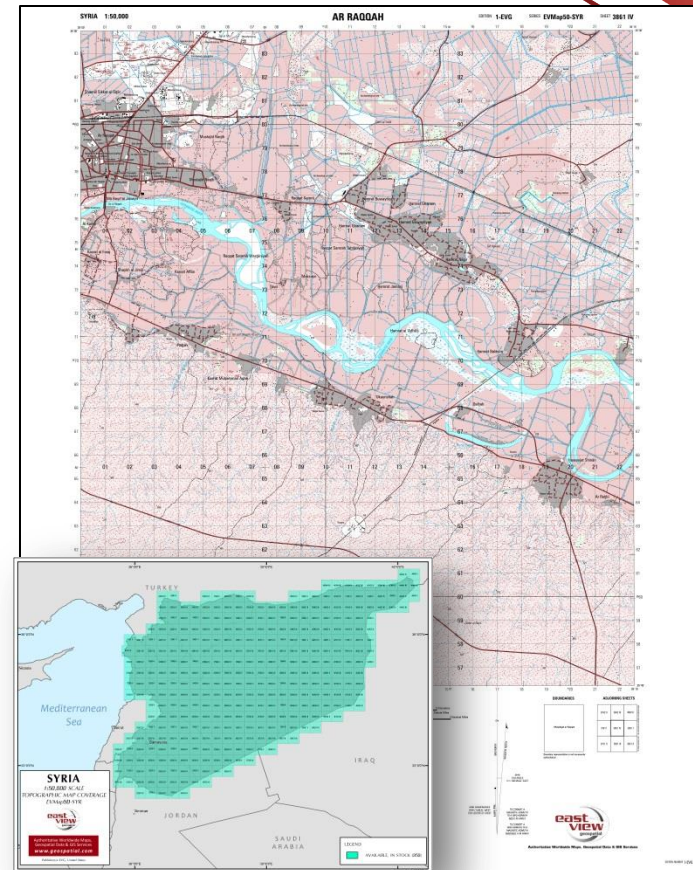

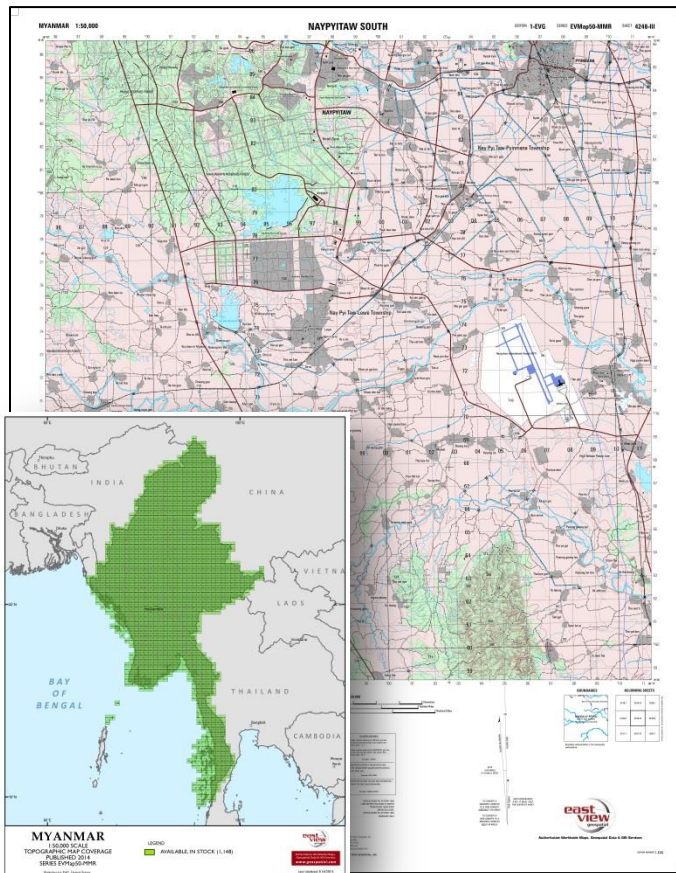

Index Maps

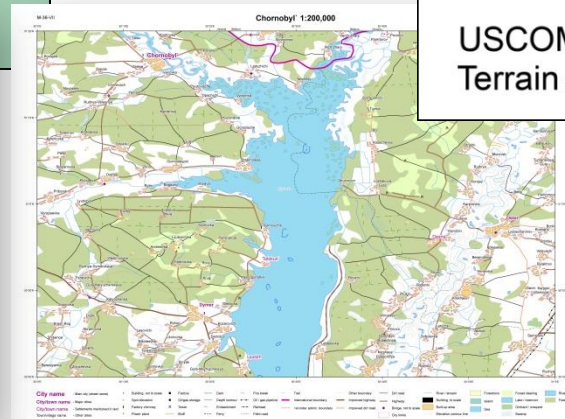

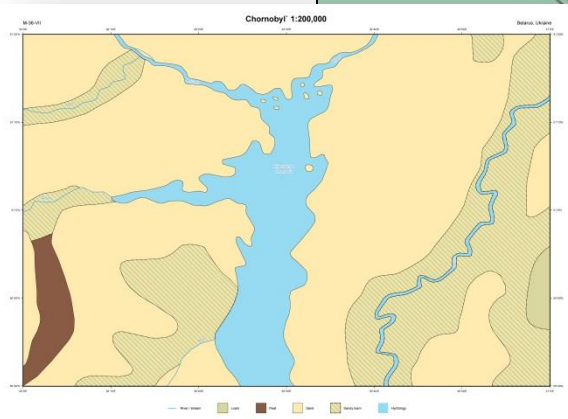

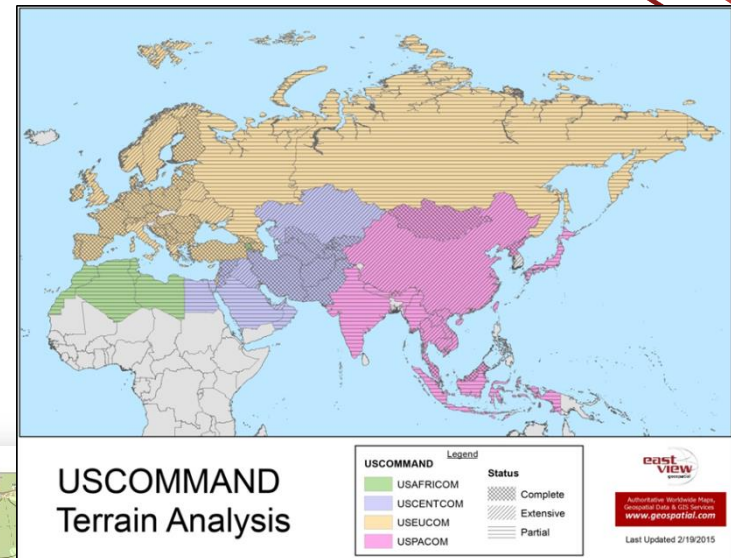

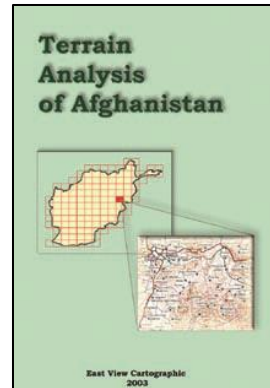

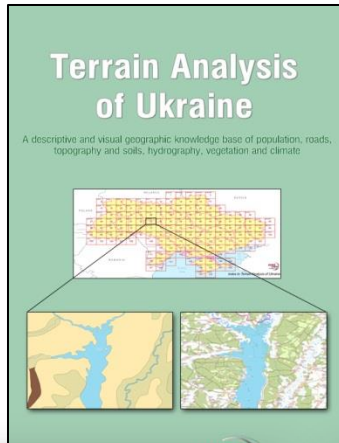

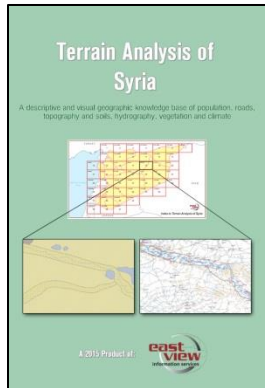

UNCOMMON INFORMATION
EXTRAORDINARY PLACES

EASTVIEW.COM | GEOSPATIAL.COM | MAPLINK.COM | EVPRESS.COM

EVMap50 – Myanmar and Syria

Terrain Analysis Series

Aeronautical/Nautical Charts

